Jack's Hunting Trip

Sam, Ann, and Walter are visiting the twins on the farm. Jill and Ann have just started to fix lunch in the kitchen.

“Where is Jack this morning?” Ann asks.

“He went on a hunting trip,” Jill tells her.

It is a hot day. Jack the hunter is standing in back of the wall by the duck pond. With him he has his toy gun and a big hunting bag for all the animals he plans to kill.

There is a big tan duck on the pond. Jack stays hidden until it swims up to him. Then he lifts his gun.

Jack jumps into the pond, catches the big bird by a leg, and sticks it into his hunting bag.

At the bottom of the bag, the duck quacks and quacks. "Be still," Jack says. "Can't you tell that I've killed you?"
