

Introduction

Meeting New Friends	1
Getting to Know People	2

Respect and Responsibility

Taking Turns	3
Friends with Special Needs	5
Sharing	6
Asking to Use Someone’s Possessions	8
Respecting Property	10

Citizenship

Saying No	12
Saying No to Name Calling	13
Name Calling When You Are Angry	15
Letting Someone Know You Care	16
Saying I’m Sorry	17
Following Directions	18
Being Honest	20
Being Good Citizens	22
Helping Others	24

Manners

Showing Good Manners	25
Saying Please	26
Saying Thank You	28
Saying Excuse Me	29
Saying Please, Thank You, and Excuse Me	30
Interrupting Because of an Emergency	31
Interrupting for Nonemergencies	33
Deciding Between an Emergency or Nonemergency	34
Introducing Yourself to Others	35
Introducing Others	36

Mealtime Etiquette

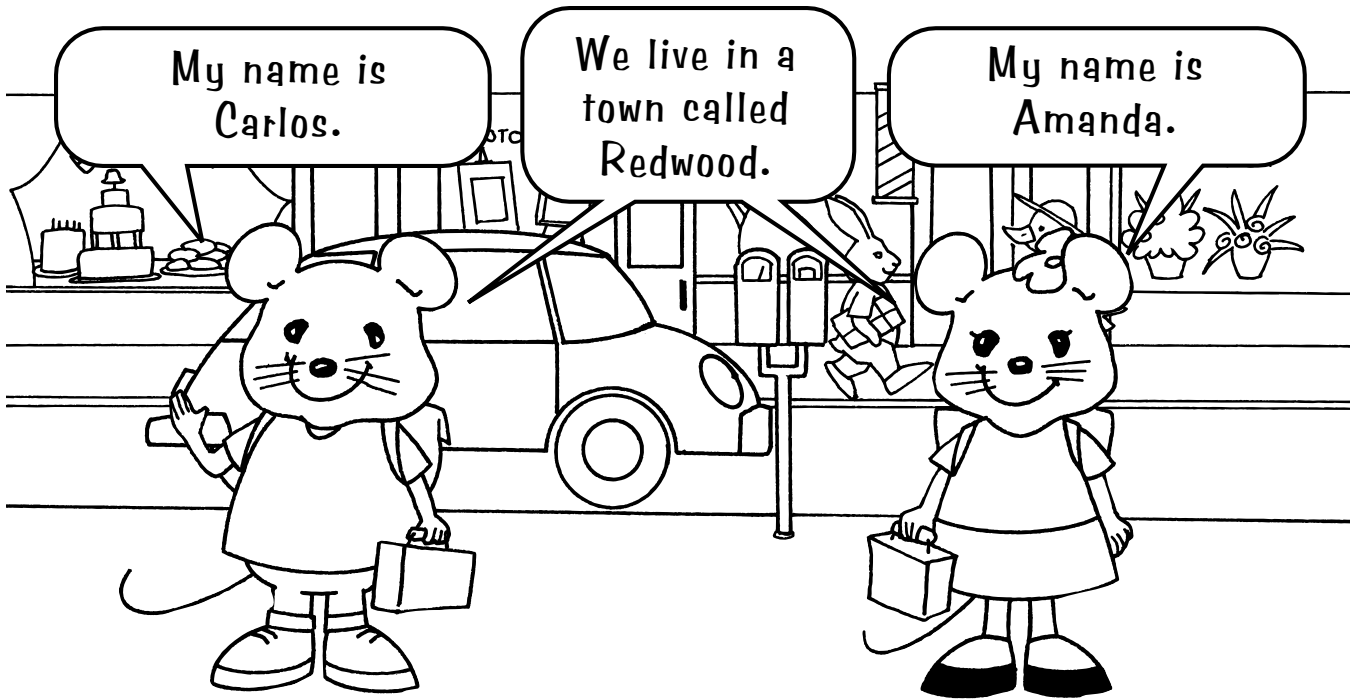

Remembering Mealtime Manners	37
Saying Please and Thank You at Mealtime	38
Using Silverware	39
Passing Food	40
Taking the Right Amount of Food	41

Answers

.....	42
-------	----

Meeting New Friends

When you meet someone new, say your name.
Tell something about yourself.

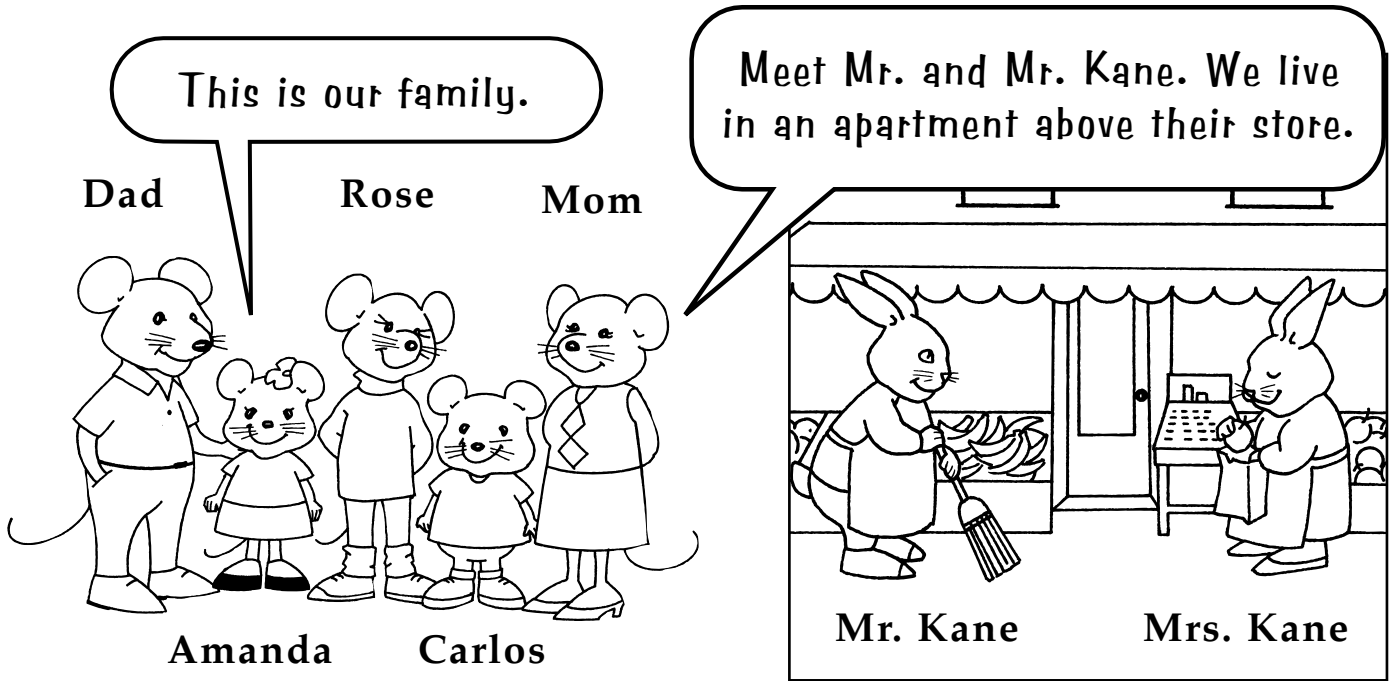

Introduce yourself.

My name is

I live in

Getting to Know People

It's nice to learn more about new friends.

Draw a picture of your family and where you live.

Taking Turns

When you play with friends, remember to take turns. Taking turns is a fair way to play.

Circle Amanda, Carlos, and their friends taking turns.

